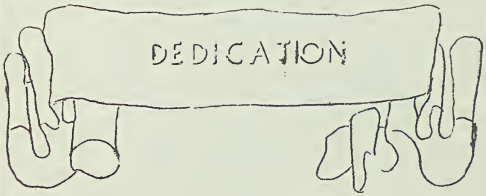
THE SCHOOL SONG

This land of ours is full of schools,
Schools both great and small;
But when it comes to praising them,
Why Bethany beats them all.

The boys and girls of yesterday,
Are the grown-ups of today;
Tomorrow we will leave our school,
We'll know how to work and play.

I am proud of my school,
Is my school proud of me?
What she needs is citizens,
Trained in loyalty.
When we work and we play,
With our classmates;
Good citizens we will be,
Then I'll be proud, be proud of Bethany,
And I'll make her proud of me.



Because of their self-sacrifices to us and to the school, their interest in all activities of the school and the community, and their devoted attention to the Student Body, we dedicate this volume of the PINE BURR to our coaches

MISS EVELYN LINDLEY

and

MR. JAMES ROGER PEELER

I N M E M O R I A M

Carrie Lois Humphrey

In memory of one of our beloved classmates, who passed on into the great beyond, September 8, 1939, we leave this page as a token of our memory. Had she lived we are sure that, with the unusual ability that she possessed, she would be one of the leaders of this graduating class of 1942. Kind thoughts and memories will always remain in the minds of her classmates and schoolmates and all who knew her.

STATISTICS

This information, collected by me, the statistician is left by the class of '42 concerning themselves.

I have assumed the class of '42 is very enormous having 42 members with a combined weight of 5,110 lbs., and a combined height of 238 feet. The class is 647 years old and has been in school 1,760 days. If we were to deduct the hours Edgar McCollum skipped class, and Oma Moore slept, the hours Bock Haynes day dreamed, and the time spent by our most athletic class getting transportation to ball games, the amount would decrease a number of years. The class has 22 blue eyes, 12 brown and 6 hazel.

Hadie and Clifton Norman received the flowery compliment of being the most popular girl and boy.

The votes show that Frances Talley is the prettiest girl and Jack Carter the best looking boy. Of course everyone agrees to this.

Dorothy Gentry is certainly the most dignified.

Ilene Griffin is the quietest.

Our two best athletes are Virginia Payne and Clifton Norman, while we have other good athletes in our class.

Betty Williams is the best all-round girl and Dudley Dodson the best all-round boy.

Sybil Young is the happiest.

The most likely to succeed in later years is E. V. Wood.

Al Joe Wall was elected as the laziest in the class.

The wittest of the class is Oscar Haynes.

The best sport is Annie Rakestraw.

The best dressed girl is Sudie Wall, and the best dressed boy is Odell Newnam.

Marjorie McCollum was elected by a majority of the class to be the friendliest and also the best natured.

Edgar McCollum has the most dramatic ability.

Clifton Norman is the most likable among the group.

Sarah Harris and Francis Knight are the biggest flirts (of all the other flirts).

Rebecca Haynes is the most attractive girl and Melvin Moore the most attractive boy.

Oscar Haynes is the neatest.

The most accomplished Senior is E. V. Wood.

Nellie Moore is the best citizen.

The most versatile is Thomas McCollum.

Clifton Norman has the most leadership ability.

The smartest of the class is Odell Newnam, much like all the others.

Betty Williams is the most ideal person.

Sarah Harris, Statistician

CLASS HISTORY

Now, as we, the Senior Class of '42 are ready to go out into this cold, wide world to take our places in Uncle Sam's armed forces, the defense factories, offices, and the many other vacancies waiting for us, let's turn back a few pages of the record and see what has been written there.

On one bright and sunny day in early September 1938 a wild bunch of green "kids" became Freshmen in the field of higher education. Since the atmosphere was altogether new to them, it was hard to adapt themselves to it and get down to real work. But after some time the following faculty members were able to calm them down considerably. Mrs. Foil undertook the job of teaching the girls Home Economics. She was also their advisor. Mr. Knight, science teacher, attempted to look after the boys. The remaining instructors were: Mr. Gardner, Agriculture; Mr. Gillespie, History and Coach; Miss Knox, Mathematics and Coach; Miss Stafford, French and English; Miss Jackson, English; Mr. Staton, Principal.

Near the end of the year the Home Economics girls "trucked" down to the County Play Ground for a day full of fun with the other Home Economics girls in the county. In the course of the day we participated in several contests with Bethany winning the prize. Our day ended with many sunburned noses.

Although the way was hard for some of us, we finally toured up to the next step in our career at Bethany, Sophomore. This year our advisor was Miss Lindley.

A commercial department was added to our staff of courses. Miss McLewhorn was in charge of it. There were a few changes in the faculty, Mrs. Foil, Miss Knox, and Mr. Gillespie resigned to be replaced by Miss Harrison, Miss Lindley, and Mr. Peeler. Miss Troxler was our long desired music director.

Just a few days before we were to become Juniors, one of our much loved classmates passed on into the great beyond. Lois Humphrey was a leader, a faithful friend, and the spirit of the class. Her sweet face and lovely smile will live with us always.

This year the faculty consisted of Miss Harrison, Mr. Gardner, Mr. Peeler, Miss Lindley, Mrs. Bernhardt, Mr. Knight, Miss Coleman, Mr. Steton, Mr. Howard, and Miss Troxler who had become Mrs. Hastings.

Among the social events of the year was the marriage of two of our faculty members, Miss Coleman and Mr. Peeler; and the marriage of four of our classmates.

The Juniors carried the Seniors on a tour of their State Capitol. Among the places visited were the Capitol Building, the Governor's mansion, Dix Hill, State Prison, State College, and Chapel Hill. The most exciting event of the day was the ramble through the Capitol Building and then shaking hands with Governor Broughton.

During the spring the annual meeting of the Juniors and Seniors of the county was held in our school gymnasium.

As time rolled on and before we realized it, the time had arrived for us to begin our busy year as Seniors.

At the beginning of the year the faculty included Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Bernhardt, Miss Harrison, Miss Lindley, Mr. and Mrs. Peeler, Mrs. Hastings, Mr. Thomasson, Mrs. Cole, and Mr. Parthing, the new principal. Later Mr. Gardner, Mrs. Bernhardt, and Mrs. Hastings resigned and were replaced by Mr. Dixon, Mrs. Hast, and Mrs. Chandler.

To begin the year with a good start, the Seniors visited Chapel Hill on Senior Day and witnessed together their first football game.

After our first day in college we returned home and settled down to a few weeks of magazine selling, which was not only amusing but also profitable.

Our Grade-Mother, Mrs. Coolsby, gave us a delightful Christmas Party in her home.

After the mid-term exams expired the Seniors went to Greensboro to have their beauty struck. They also gave their play, "I'm In The Army Now!"

The next great event of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet.

The last but not least occurrence of the year was the reaching of the hard worked for goal, the receiving of our diplomas.

As we have accomplished some things in the past we look forward to accomplishing greater things in the future.

With this history as a back-ground, what will our foreground be?

Dorothy Gentry, Historian

May 8, 1952

Dear Chigger:

Today is a great day in our history. Do you remember what this day is in memory of? Well, it has been exactly ten years since we graduated from Bethany High School. From what I have learned, there are quite a few changes since I last saw you and the rest of my school pals.

I was listening to my radio the other night and heard Jack Brookbank announcing the Rose Bowl football game. He introduced Odell Newman, the Governor of California, who was attending the game. After the game Oscar Haynes and his orchestra, with Betty Williams singing, kept me comfort for an hour or so. At ten o'clock Oma Moore and his Amateur Program furnished me another hour of "swell" entertainment.

This morning I was looking at the paper and saw Thomas Adkin's picture. He is the successful owner of an airplane factory in Stokesdale. In our old home town section I read an article about Dudley Dodson and Robert Alley, two of America's best Future Farmers.

I received a letter from Thomas McCollum today and he said that his dream had really come true. He is owner of the world's largest garage and at the place he always wanted it, in Madison. He also told me of Dorothy Gentry's operating a beauty shop there. By the way, did you know that Ruby Isley and Lillian Troxler are classed as America's best Red Cross Nurses?

Chigger, have you heard from Clifton Norman, Jack Gerber, and Harry Rakestraw? I haven't heard from them this week. As you know Jack and Harry have been in the U. S. Army ever since two months after graduation and Clifton left for Pittsburg to make his fortune as soon as he got his diploma.

Virgina Payne and Annie Rakestraw coach two of America's best basketball teams and they will meet to night for the World Championship at New York City.

Hadie Norman and Rebecca Haynes have settled down in Kernersville, N.C. I read the New York Times today and saw Melvin Moore's picture with the New York Yankees. Nellie Moore, Pattie Mae Cummings, Gertrude Moore, and Sadie Snider operate a beauty palor in Stokesdale, N.C.

I met Al Joe Wall and Edgar McCollum on the street today. They were still thumbing as they were during our old school days. They told me that Majorie McCollum and Sudie Wall are secretaries for Wade Inman and Karby Williams who operate a big steel factory at Summerfield. I was taking a tour to California last week on an American Airliner and saw Sarah Harris the Stewardess on it. I stopped in California for several days and saw Frances Talley and Jaunita Carter who were drivers for the American Red Cross Ambulance Division. I came on by the way of Baltimore where I met Sybil Young. She was housekeeping while her husband, Sam, brought in the money. They were very happy.

I called Mary Hoye Goolsby up over the phone from Stokesdale today and who do you think was the telephone operator, none other than Ilene Griffin. Mary Hoye owns a large clothing store there.

When I returned home I found that I had received a letter from Irene Wall saying that she had become Mrs. Hank Horn. They are now making home in Louisiana.

Well, Chigger, there have been many changes since we parted from Bethany, but it seems that all our school friends have been prosperous.

I am still living at Bethany; drop in to see me sometime.

Your friend,

Francis Knight,
Prophet

CLASS POEM

Dear Class of 1942
Our hearts to thee are bound
Strong with cords of golden love
That all our lives surround.

"Character is the corner stone of success,"
This our motto brave
As ever on and up we strive
These words our way will pave.

The teachers here, we all adore,
And every day we love them more
But when we're gone we hope they won't forget
That we Seniors love them yet.

As we go with a wish for all
That each succeeds and never falls
Let us say as we depart
We love our schoolmates with all our hearts.

The years ahead we cannot know
The way is long 'twould seem
"Character is the corner stone of success,"
Of great things we all dream.

Marjorie McCollum, Poet

CLASS SONG

(Frances Talley & Jaunita Carter)

(Tune of Beautiful Dreamer)

Graduation has come at last
We hate to leave our friends of the past,
We'll ne'er forget them
After we're gone
Tho' after we've parted, a new world is born.

Now we are leaving things that are dear,
We won't be coming back next year.
New ones and old ones have come to dwell,
Now we bid you all farewell
Now we bid you all farewell.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of 1942 of Bethany High School of Rockingham County of the State of North Carolina here leave all our treasures, knowledge, and belongings to the up and growing students and teachers of Bethany High School.

To Mr. Farthing our beloved principal, we leave a bunch of absence lists so he will have something to do the first day next year.

To Miss Lindley our class sponsor, we leave a corn cob pipe so she can smoke it in peace after we are gone.

To Mrs. Cole we leave our gold in Fort Knox, Ky. for her husband to work on.

To Mr. Thomasson, Hadie Norman leaves a French Book so he can study up on it during the summer.

To Mrs. Hast, we leave all the English Books.

To Mr. Dixon, Thomas Adkins leaves his horse laugh; it might help him to teach the boys farming.

To Miss Harrison we leave a stack of dirty dishes.

To Mrs. Peeler we leave all the torn up typewriters.

To Mr. Peeler, our ability to play basket ball so he can give it to some one else. It might help the team.

To all the grammar grade teachers we leave our love for not kicking us out while we were down there.

Jauntia Carter leaves a tube of lip stick to V. A. Adkins.

Pattie Mae Cummings her salesman-ship ability to Thomas Hutchins.

Elaine Friddle her ability to attract all the boys to Beulah Lee Moseley.

Dorothy Gentry her studying ability to Mabel Dodson.

Mary Love Coolsby her talkative ability to Jewel Haynes.

Ilene Griffin her quietness to Lillie Thomas.

Sarah Harris her basket ball ability to Peggy Wilson in hope that Bethany will have as successful team next year as they did this.

Rebecca Haynes her ability as cheer leader to Lois Alley.

Ruby Isley her curls to Mary Lina Sutton.

Marjorie (Hefty) McCollum her winning ways to Bryant Collins.

Nellie Moore her black hair to Marian Griffin.

Gertrude Moore leaves her voice to Venora Friddle.

Hadie Norman a French book to Harold King. It might help him.

Virginia Payne a pair of shoes to Van Sharpe so it won't be any trouble for him to find one.

Annie Rakestraw her mistakes to Ralph Pegram.

Sadie Snider her giggles to Barbara Manley.

Francis Talley her beauty to Eldridge Johnston.

Lillian Troxler her laughter to Mamie Middleton.

Irene Wall a mirror to Glenn Frame.

Betty Williams her music ability to Margaret Warren.

Sybil Young her marriage license to David King.

Thomas Adkins his basket ball suit to Ray Roberts.

Robert Alley his blushes to Elwood Simpson.

Francis Knight and Jack Brookbank their wise cracks and jokes to James Smith.

Oscar Haynes a set of water colors to Elizabeth Sutton.

Wade Inman his desire to drive a truck to Jack Booker.

Edgar McCollum his shorthand notes to Hilda Wilson.

Thomas McCollum his receipts to Dove Wilson.

Melvin Moore his good looks to Marion Griffin.

Oma Moore his ability to sleep on English Class to Kathleen Hudson.

Odell Newman a date book to Ray Sharp.

Harry McKostrey his draft number to Vernell McCollum.

Al Joe Wall his voice to Mary Louise Payne.

Kirby Williams his ability to skip school to James Smith.

B.V. Wood his dramatic ability and ability to drive a car to Sarah Knight.

Jack Carter his temper to Francis Alverson.

I, Dudley Dodson leave my ability to write the will to the whole Junior Class.

Signed-this day of May, 1942.
